Whats being done about lagbot? (I.E. Lag Sniping and such)

If you dont know what it is ask me to private message you because its not a hack its something that you can do with out a third party client and i dont want to tell everyone here exactly what it is because that would be telling them how to use it...

And how to stop it?

Also I doubt the effectiveness of this "lagbot" in the first place. I see it as a disadvantage rather than anything else.

The only thing hard about moderating intentional lagging is its hard to enforce. Really you cant prove if its just a lag spike or theyve set it so they can exploit lag killing.

Also, I've noticed when I alt-tab to Remote Desktop into my box, my kbps goes way down. I wouldn't want someone to alt-tab and get kicked for that KBPS drop.

However, something like "!kbps crimsson" that would PM me their KBPS and the average KBPS of the players on the server would help me make a judgement call.

thats quite true on many occasions i have checked thru renrem KBPS of players i suspect and notice mine is like 9 while alt tabbed yesterday on n00bsvr01 i noticed a soldier warping left to right crazy like.. it was unnatural.. it was like a sniper in scope mode but worse.. and he never had a sniper rifle... i was gonna kick him for the kbps exploit.. but i thought i'd wait to see if it happened again.. he never came back :S

i think this is a HUGE issue, and as a matter of a fact, seems to be spreading...

now some of the RenGuard staff are being affected by the lagbot...

One day I will stop telling people how to exploit the game and Crimson will have to stop editing my posts.
