I have just thought of a GREAT way to get a few kills early in a game.....
As soon as you spawn , get an engi and put remote c4 on ur own harvy, then hide and watch it, once you see a couple of enemies putting there c4 on it (works best in big game) set off ur c4 and.....BOOOOOOOOOOOOOOM
lots of kills

i use it all the time except with timed c4... another good one is to throw timed on their harvey 15secs before it goes back to their base that way u pop the engies who are trying to rep it
