Wonderful. You've did an incredible job...But I won't agree with Gernader...Because the way the navbar is made gives the design all it's originality.

That looks pretty good If it's ok with your friend try making the navbar / link boxes less "boxish".
Good job though

*This is NOT an advertisement*

I'm not the leader of the clan (Just a member) but if your interested in joining goto loreclan.org (still with the ugly layout) and post in the forums.

Thanks for the comments guys...

I completely revamped the layout because the other one has way too long of a loading time...

You can view the changes at <http://www.jitterjunction.com/lore/> (Dont even ask about the domain :rolleyes: )
