Er a little large I have max res on my screen and it stretches my screen...

Nice anyway the 2nd one does look to good unless that is when it is reloading.

Hmmm...

The 3rd person ak-47 looks nice. What does the ak-47 look like from 1st person? Can you take another screenshot?

The pistol doesn't really look that great... Both the model and skin could be improved upon more.

I don't have the ak-47 fist person done, and as for the makarov if you can find a nice large color side view of one....

left hand bone position is a bit off, if you where to fire an AK-47, and hold it there, you would get severe burns from ejecting cartridges... put the hand on the wood stock where it goes, pistol looks good, did you add the clip as well?

Well the thing is he is running. So the hand moves. Not like anyone will really notice when in game playing.

And i kept the original reload animation for both pistols. It looks good why not?
