Your affilliate button will be there . . . <http://egames.servegame.com/Main/links.htm> Don't worry about the two big affiliates, I'm gonna get a small 31x88 button for one of them . . .

Here's my button, and the link to my site . . .

<http://egames.servegame.com>

EDIT: LOL forgot to put my button up :oops:

I just added it: <http://www.theoriginalmrbob.com>

Now add this image to your site:

And one more thing, did you make that button of yours? If you did, you wouldn't mind making me one would you? Because as you can see, my current link button SUCKS.

I'll have to put you up tomorrow, because I have used all of my "Computer Time" today (1 hour) The reason I am on here now though is that I'm trying to find something for my dad, and he doesn't know I'm posting this. I'll ask my dad if I can edit my site, but he'll probably say no. I'll have it up tomorrow for sure though.

First, that button is to large, second you did not post your web address. Sure I'll make you one, but please Private Message me, or e-mail me or something Thank You. . .
