I have 'hitch hicker's thumb (can bend it back uber far), my fingers can be bent back to the point where they are about an inch above the back of my hand, without feeling any pain, and the first joint on my index finger can bend without the others moving.

I got the "wierdness" award once. So I wouldn't say that PS is a talent for me.

I'm good at math/science and Tennis.

I'm creative and I am good at debating subjects that I feel strongly about. I'm stubborn, that's what makes me so good.

I love working on classic cars and moreso trucks

I specifically love working on the engines -- I'm working on a mild GMC 355 as the money slowly comes in, lol It'll eventually go in my not yet classic 1980 GMC 3/4 ton beater, nothing like a good sleeper, lol

Lets see...

The Clarinet

Philosophy

Science inventions (now I just need the funds)

Law (considering my lack of official education)

Public Speaking

Instructing (Drill and classroom)

Edit: and oh yes, for some reason my brothers always seek my assistance when they require a part of a game to be completed.
