Buy the battle chest, $15 over at Best Buy, Comp USA, Circuit City, Wall-Mart ETC ETC ETC I don't think anyone will jsut give you their CD-key so your best bet is to just buy it again.

yeah, that might be your best bet. you still end up with $15. depends on how desperate you are, if money is a huge issue and u need it, try finding something that will decode it for you, if it's not that important, take the $15 and run with it.

OMG (first time i used this online), that was scary as hell.

pulls power plugs to his disk drive out of his pc

I don't want that guy ever coming out of my pc.

On a diffrent note: I just heard on the radio (10 sec ago) that scientist from harvard have said that there is no connection between downloading music from the internet (kazaa) and the decline of people buying cd's in the stores.

I would tell you all to use emule, but I think that it doesn't work for low speed connections.
:rolleyes:

BTW Terminator, your sig is incorrect, it's "Hasta la vista, baby".
