^^Alliteration!

Anyway, I find this quite comical. I join Alkaline's Shitborn server to test (yet another) Reborn bug, and I get a PM asking if I'm cwazyape. I respond yes. Then he asks me to "please leave" for "all the shit I talk on renegadeforums". Seems this little guy can't handle criticism.

You told me it was because of the following post:

Quote:Alkaline, pull your head out of your ass. It was already stated in this thread by Dante that Reborn used a hacked version of the game.exe. What proof do you have that shows Renalert does? It sure as hell looks like an untouched version of game.exe to me.

How about proving your point instead of attacking someone when you disagree with them?

It's childish asking someone to leave your server because they state their opinion about a mod.

Quote:Which currently happen to be the most popular on gamespy.

Because I dont play on Gayspy, this doesn't apply to me.

1. Only very few of ACK's maps were started by WW.
  2. If you're gonna call someone an assclown, type it correctly.
  3. Reborn could "ownz" Renalert if it didn't suck, and they actually knew how to UVW unwrap. Oh, and they need to stop taking music from other game titles, they need to fix the walking animations, they need to make the engineer not spawn a giant tiberium penis when he dies, they need to fix the underground advantage... I could go on.

I can start a wolspy Default Map server and it would be full 24/7.

You can say lies all you want, but when you start GSA, the truth smakes you in the face. :twisted:

Well, we see about that later when I get home since some ppl have a job and cant sit 24/7 infront gsa as other ppl can.

6 servers and 1 almost full.....I dont call that "the most popular servers on GSA"

See, Alkaline, the "0" that your servers display do not mean that there are 0 spaces left for players. The "0" means that there is NOBODY playing on the server.

Alkaline.....FROM ALL UN servers. Which currently happen to be the most popular on gamespy :rolleyes:
If being most popular (in your opinion) means having some empty servers... I'd hate to think what being the least popular means....

Where is the Tefon Server? Ohh thats right its not even online. B.t.w thats when gamespy had 73 players online, and the only people playing were either from Asia or some place during timezones.

NOT TO MENTION I JUST INSTALLED RENGAURD ON ALL THE SERVERS SO PEOPLE WERE GETTING KICKED :rolleyes:

idiot.

So you're admitting that the only reason why your servers were ever full was because they were full of cheaters. Then you are correct about your servers being the most popular, but you left out one important detail about them being the most popular. They were the most popular for cheaters.

Edit: STOP double posting you fucking forum troll.
