It is a orca fighter or it resembles one. The harpy looks a lot different from pics I've seen. Anyways can I get some input on how it looks. Pros: Cons: ragexs

That's an orca once you look at the details.The reason everyone thinks it's a harpy is because it's so skinny and long.Take the model, stick it length-wise in a trash compactor, run it for ten seconds, pull it out, and voila.In english...shorten it up to the area where the window slopes down:

ok i see we all have played Tiberium Sun ^_^...ok...u know the helicopter that Sakura flies???...and in the very second level that first NOD helicopter u see chasing a Orca??...THATS A HARPY...the harpy has NO wings and 2 fan things(i forgot what they are calls lol) one on top..and one in the rear...it only has a machine gun in the front..and in Renegade they added missile pods that rotated out...the Harpy is very slender and skinny...and that pic has stuff jutting out on the side(missile pods and the 2 fans)..therefore it could NOT be a harpy..and its a orca...theres your lesson for today ^_^

And technically Sakura's chopper is a Comanche, and the Harpy has no rotors...But with a slightly changed cockpit (making it look slightly more evil), the Comanche and Harpy are pretty similar. There's your useless fact for today

oh... ragexs and xorkaya, nice models. But if you do plan in the future in using the,m in a mod, you would have to crop some polies. Those models look like they have very large polycounts. And one other thing... THIS is an orca bomber (pic from westwoods Tiberian Sun site): Now could somebody model that? I would, but I'm too lazy -Stick[March 12, 2002: Message edited by: StickMan9000]

StickMan9000 that is not what the bomber looks like ingame... the pic you used was what i thought it was too originally, but then i reinstalled TS and looked at it ingame... the bomber has two fans and looks like mine, not the one on the sight for some reasonso mine is the correct one, not the one you posted

Also, the Orca FIGHTER is also outdated. That's the old CnC Orca with the big unmaneuverable jets. The new Orca Fighter uses two separate jets facing down and back instead of one big one that rotates. Look at TS specific pictures.

If they can do a mod true to Tiberian Sun even with all it's advanced stuff, then that(even though the RTS wasn't very good it'd make a great FPS).Otherwise Ra1(which would be easy to do).

A unit in the game that i would like to see but we have never got to use (unless it was in an expansion pack i didnt bother to buy) was the unit at the end of the game. you know when you finish td is shows a walking vehicle with lasers? Just a thought. Personally i like the look of that unit better than the wolvarine. It would probably be a huge undertaking but, what if someone made a mammoth mark II for the game? One other thing, most of the posts i have seen all have units for gdi and very few if any for nod (with the exception of the mention of a banshee). Nod will have to have some pretty bad  units to counter those units.

All I did was go to <http://www.3dcafe.com/asp/tut3ds.asp> and just looked at some tutorials. After that I just experimented with the toopls like "Edit Mesh", "Tessellate" and so on. I was suprised how easy 3D Studio Max 4 was.

actually i think that the idea of a mm II isn't feesable. to make it proportional you would have to make a bigger wep factory and design a way for it to "walk" so it didnt behave as a vehicle but as a mech type thing. It would be the same for the titan. If you built it you would have to make a bigger wep factory or else migitize the titan.
