The beginning was so stupid that I decided that I can't waste my time reading what some dumb fuck thinks is serious. Invisible surveillance...yeah. PARANOIA...he needs to see a doctor, either that or be in a nice soft white room.

Hmm, not like a typical AOL site. Where's the screechy MIDI playing in the background?

EDIT: WTF is a "Mind Machine" ?

Me and xptek have discovered new issues that are important:

*Natural gas fumes are trying to take over our minds.

*The US government is fighting mutated naked mole rats under the Earth's surface.

*Pollution is controlled by horse jockeys who are too insecure about their height so it's their plan to take over the world.

*The government is altering the kangaroos! Mutants!

Edit: X-Files was shut down by the government because they were exposing the truth of secret government projects and files.
